

Physical and Emotional Intimacy

1. Define “intimacy.” (Write the complete definition from a dictionary.)

2. List five reasons why it’s not appropriate to touch other girls in the home or at school.
 - a.
 - b.
 - c.
 - d.
 - e.

3. If a girl you just met at school asked to borrow money from you, would you think that was appropriate? Why or why not?

4. Would it be okay for that girl to touch you? Why or why not?

5. Why is it not appropriate for you to tell shocking stories to adults and youth that you have just met?

6. What happens when you tell adults and youth shocking stories about your life and sexuality?
Name five things that happen or can happen.

- a.
- b.
- c.
- d.
- e.

7. What about you do you consider intimate and personal? Also, what events in your life are intimate and personal (just give a general, one-sentence description of each)? If you are embarrassed to mention things that have to do with you, then tell me what things and events you would consider intimate and personal.

8. How long do you need to know a person before you can tell them about intimate and personal details of what has happened in your life?